My life!
Thank you for choosing me to grow old with!

Most people read quotes to find the meaning of life, but all I need to do is gaze in the eyes of my wife.

Although your birthday will pass by really quick, the celebration for me will last more than a tick ‘cause after all of these birthdays, and memories so sweet, sometimes when I see you my heart still skips a beat.

The way that you juggle things is such a great feat. You’re the reason our family just feels so complete.

All the grand memories that we have made until now. All the times we have shared which made me say “WOW”. All the times I can pinpoint as “the best of my life”. I owe to one person. My caring, loving wife.

And wherever life takes us no matter the view makes no difference to me. If I’m next to you.

You’re such a special woman. Who deserves a special day. For being who you are. And helping every way.

You’re so generous, and loving with everything you do and I’m hoping that your birthday is just as beautiful as you.

So as you blow out those candles on your favorite birthday cake, I hope that you realize what an amazing wife you make!

Without you in my life, my heart would just be dead. But with you, I look forward to the wonderful life ahead.

Happy Birthday Danie Gordon

Happy Holidays!
From Your County Supervisor

BY ROBERTA MACGLASHAN, Sacramento County Supervisor - Chair

On December 7, 2004 I was sworn in to represent the Fourth District on the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors. It is hard to believe that was 12 years ago! It has been my privilege to represent the community of Antelope the entire time. Thanks to the generosity of Gregg and Liz Goldthorpe, I have had the opportunity to write this monthly column for the Antelope News – an estimated 144 columns!

Some other relevant numbers: I have held 9 community meetings each year, for a total of over 100 meetings at the North Highlands-Antelope Library. Most of those meetings have featured a guest speaker, and some were special meetings. We held two town hall meetings on public safety, and one on the topic of homelessness. About half have been held in conjunction with representatives of the Sacramento County Sheriff’s Department and the California Highway Patrol.

In 2013, in conjunction with the Sunrise Recreation and Park District, we held the first annual Community Concert in the Park. Unfortunately, the temperature that day was a blistering 107 degrees, so only a few hardy souls braved the heat. The following year, a blistering 107 degrees, so only a few hardy souls braved the heat. The following year, we held the first annual Community Concert in the Park.

Several themes have emerged as I have heard from my Antelope constituents over the years. You want more non-chain, sit-down restaurants. You want the two-lane section of Antelope Road widened to remove the bottleneck. You want better enforcement of speed limits and other moving violations. More recently, you want commercial areas to provide better security, and fewer homeless persons camping on public and private property.

My office has worked to address all of these issues. The Great Recession stalled new commercial and residential development for several years. New development on the horizon will finally accomplish the widening of Antelope Road, and landlords are actively seeking tenants to provide a wider range of shopping and services in the community. The Sheriff’s Department has increased the number of deputies assigned to patrol Antelope under the new intelligence-led policing model. The Board of Supervisors is holding a series of workshops on homelessness. While there is no one simple solution to this complex situation, every member of the Board is committed to finding the most effective approaches for use of your tax dollars to address homelessness.

Several local businesses at the intersection of Elvera and Walenga Roads have come together, supported by County staff and my office, to address security issues in the largest commercial area in Antelope. They have formed a “Business Watch,” similar to the “Neighborhood Watch” concept, working together so that nuisance and criminal behaviors are not simply shifted from one area to another. The next step, which is currently in progress, is the potential formation of a “Property Based Improvement District” (or “PBID”) for this important gateway to the community. Several PBIDs have already been formed in Sacramento County. Under a PBID, property owners assess themselves annually and decide how to spend those funds. In the case of Antelope, the funds would be spent to improve safety and security within the district. Since many businesses already pay for private security, a PBID would allow them to better coordinate their separate efforts, and potentially save them money while making the area safer and more inviting to customers.

I normally conclude these monthly columns inviting you to my next community meeting. Since I decided not to run for another term on the Board of Supervisors, my last meeting was in October. It has been a great privilege to serve the community of Antelope for the past 12 years. While I will no longer be your representative on the Board of Supervisors, I will always care about the community and the wonderful residents I have had the opportunity to meet.

Dry Creek School District Update

BY BRAD TOOKER, Superintendent

In response to the recent statement made by State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Tom Torlakson, reassuring “all of California’s 6.2-million public school students that keeping them safe from discrimination and bullying at our great state’s 11,000 public schools is a top priority,” I wanted to take a moment to highlight a few of Dry Creek Joint Elementary School District’s (DCJESD) successful bullying prevention programs.

Peacemaker Program. Select students from grades 3rd – 5th are trained by Soul Shoppe, an organization dedicated to eliminating bullying by teaching students conflict resolution tools. The trained Student Peacemakers are available at recess to help resolve conflicts. The Peacemaker brings individuals involved in the conflict to the Peace Path, which is painted onto the blacktop at Antelope Meadows Elementary School, and guides students through steps toward making peace with each other.

Positive Behavior Intervention and Supports (PBIS) Program. The rules of PBIS; Be Safe, Be Respectful, Be Responsible, Be Kind are woven into the curriculum at most of our school sites. Teachers model the proper PBIS expectation and reiterate the lesson within their teachings throughout the day. Students demonstrating positive behavior are rewarded with recognition and at times non-monetary prizes.

Touch of Understanding. This program is designed to help students understand challenges faced by those with disabilities. An in-depth assembly, followed by hands-on learning with things like wheelchairs and white canes, allows students to truly attempt to walk in the shoes of someone with a disability.

Breaking Down the Walls Assembly and Breakout Sessions. Created and led by Phil Boyte, this comprehensive program is designed to unify, empower, and engage every student to create a positive and supportive campus climate. Students work side by side, learn from one another, and become active participants in the positive development of their school community.

Erase the Meanness Week. This lesson starts by writing the word meanness on the board. The next day the board is completely filled with mean words along with the question “how do you want to be remembered?” Over the course of the week students replace mean words with kind ones until the board is filled with kindness.

Kindness Stations at Recess. In an effort to engage students in positive and social play, board games and art stations are provided during recess as options for students who otherwise find ways to connect with classmates.

Student’s safety is our District’s highest priority. District-wide our schools do an excellent job of creating a climate where students have a true sense of belonging, are safe, and play active parts in their school’s community. DCJESD is truly a great place to be.

Dry Creek Joint Elementary School District has been providing academic excellence since 1876. DCJESD currently operates nine award-winning schools serving over 6,500 students in the Dry Creek communities of Roseville, Dry Creek, and Antelope. Center JUSD schools will be closed December 19th through January 2nd. School will resume on Monday, January 3rd.

Much communication over the past three years has been around the LCUSD Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP). The LCAP is a guiding document to ensure we are setting purposeful goals that address the needs of all student populations. We have three overarching goals with specific actions and services outlined to support progress toward each goal. Our goals are as follows:

- Center JUSD students will be challenged and supported to achieve academic success in a clean, safe environment
- Center JUSD students will be College & Career ready
- Center JUSD students and families will be engaged and informed regarding the educational process and opportunities

As we continue with the implementation and ongoing review of our LCAP, we seek input from our families. I invite you to tell us how we are doing. You can access our state reports through the LCFS/LCAP tab at www. centerusd.org.

The Center Joint Unified food service staff looks forward to continuing to provide nutritious and delicious breakfasts and lunches to your children this fall. We encourage your children to choose school meals as all meals served are meeting or exceeding the required federal nutrition standards ensuring that meals are healthy, well-balanced and provide students all the nutrition they need to help succeed at school. Whether you have children in our school district or not you might consider donating canned goods and non-perishable food items to the Kids Can Food Drive or through Dear Santa, student government and Student Leadership classes throughout the district.

North Country Elementary School

School News

The idea of a school wide Santa’s Breakfast began in 1990, the year North Country opened as the first year-round school in the district. Our thought was always one of giving back to the parents, students and community by gathering together to celebrate one of the happiest seasons of all. Santa’s Breakfast was never meant to be a fund raiser. The nominal fee covers food, grill rental and supplies. It is an opportunity for staff to join together to cook and serve breakfast for all who come.

Through the years, we have become more savvy, fresh flipped pancakes as opposed to frozen, pre-sale tickets, pictures with Santa offered by PTO or a specific grade level and raffle tickets for the table centerpieces, all with precision and the organization it takes to feed approximately 300 people in two hours. Of course the highlight of Santa’s Breakfast is the arrival of Santa! He greets everyone as he makes his way up on stage to his favorite armchair where he listens to the wishes of many children and sends them on their way with a wink and a candy cane. Once Santa’s Breakfast has occurred, the Christmas season is well underway at NorthCountry School.

This year’s Santa’s Breakfast is scheduled for Saturday, December 10th from 8:30-10:30 am. Call the school office to pre-purchase tickets at: 858-6480.

If you’ve ever enjoyed the music and enthusiasm from the Antelope High School Band, you’ll want to meet the Dierdorff Family and learn a little more about what goes into it. Kim Dierdorff is president of the Antelope Band Boosters Association for the second term in a row. She has been involved with the boosters since her son’s freshman year when she managed the 2015 band trip to Washington, D.C. for the Independence Day Parade. “The band is amazing,” Kim says, “…they are magical to watch—whether it’s parade or field show season.”

Did you know that each year the band is looking at a $40,000-$60,000 budget to fund the program outside the school-day activities? This takes a lot of support from the community and Kim is thankful for a great group of core parents and volunteers that help make it all happen. Community sponsors have been generous and because the boosters are a non-profit group, they rely on fund raising efforts. They have been very generous and because the boosters are a non-profit group, they rely on fund raising for so many activities! The boosters sponsor events, coordinate trip logistics, choreograph, and provide overall support for practices, field show events, parades, concerts and tours. Kim loves what she does for the band and seeing the excitement of the students after a show and especially when they win!

You can tell that the Dierdorff family jumped right into the community when they came to Antelope. Kim and her husband, Jeff, T.Dierdorff, have only lived here for a handful of years but have already served others and created lasting relationships. They first lived in Antelope when they stayed with Jeff’s mom and their two sons (Alex and Andrew) started school here. They had been living in Roseville and felt the Antelope area elementary school was so much more attentive and communicative than their prior school; they were so impressed that they decided to stay. They have been pleased, as they have found the other Antelope schools to be equally caring and invested in the students.

Jeff grew up in Concord, California and Kim is from Vinalia. They both moved to Sacramento when they were about ten years old and met eighty years later when they were closing managers at a McDonald’s in Folsom. They have been married for twenty years now! Jeff works in a retail company as an Assistant Manager and Kim is a Key Account Manager for Premier Access Insurance Company. They love to go wine tasting and travel. Their whole family loves Disney, Marvel and Star Wars. Their family vacation this year was a twelve-day trip to Disney World and Universal Studios (they also love Harry Potter) and they loved it. They enjoy keeping their house a fun place to gather as a family and play together.

Andrew (10) is a junior at Antelope High and plays the alto saxophone. He’s also very involved with Titan TV, which is their weekly television newscast. He loves the behind-the-scenes process and is looking at colleges that have specialized media programs. Alex (10) is in 5th grade at Olive Grove Elementary. He is an oddity of the Monday-Monday school and loves the drama program. He has performed in the school play for the past two years and is looking forward to another year. He’s a big fan of Stan Lee and dressed up like him for Halloween 2015.

At home are also their loving dog Simba, who is a nine-year-old tabby mix and Sadie, a five-month-old Siberian Husky. Look out for the Dierdorff family and the Antelope High School Band this season at the local holiday parades and ambushes around the neighborhood!

Want to share your story or know a neighbor who should be recognized? Well, just let us know. Send your names or suggestions to the Antelope News at anewst@egnews.com.

The North Highlands Christian Food Closet needed to move from its old location at 6125 Watt Ave. They stopped serving food on the 12th of October. A new location has been found at the Murph-Emmanuel AME church on Don Julio Blvd in North Highlands. The address is 4151 Don Julio Blvd. It is near the Bus Line # 84. The hours have changed to Wednesdays only from 9 AM to 12 Noon. It is hoped that this will change when a permanent location is found.

The requirements for receiving food will remain the same as before. Please bring an ID for each member of your family needing food. A piece of mail verifying your address in the north area is also needed, however no one will be turned away if you need food for your family. The food available will be dry or canned only for now. As the time and space is worked on more food will be provided. This will include bread and pastries and fresh vegetables. So for the near future it will be mostly dry and canned food.

Questions regarding the new operations can be directed to the following people to answer: Alice Taylor can be reached at 916-331-0345 or Todd Blandage at 916-261-6183.

We are really looking forward to serving our community again and hope to see the friends we have made in the years we have served this area.

BY DORI KELSEY

The GFWC Antelope-North County Women’s Club and the Umpqua Bank wish to invite you to our 10th Annual Holiday Free Gift Wrapping on December 10th from 10 am to 2 pm. The Umpqua Bank is located in the Bel Air Shopping Center at the Corner of Waleraga Road and Elverta Road. The holiday gift wrapping has been a fun service of the Umpqua Bank & the Women’s Club; the ladies have wrapped car bumpers, car shocks, TV’s, even light bulbs and just about anything else you can think of. Just stop by during the open hours and have all your gift wrapping needs taken care of by the Women’s Club.

The Women’s Club will also have “WHALE” tags for anyone who comes into the Umpqua Bank. Whale stands for “We Have A Little Emergency”. These tags go on the Car seats for babies and children with emergency information just in case there is a traffic accident and the driver can’t speak for the child. There is a space for both Mom and Dad’s cell phone numbers plus other useful information for first responders. The Club gives these away free of charge to all parents around town so the children have just a little bit safer. Stop by the Gift wrapping and pick one up if you need a “WHALE” tag.

The gift wrapping is our December meeting. Our next meeting will be January 14th at 11:30am. We meet at Carolina’s Mexican Food on Elverta Road in the WINCO parking lot. Look for our sign. We would love to have you there. Call Dori at 332-7153 for more information or find us on Facebook at GFWC Antelope-North County Women’s Club. Check out our website at gfwc.org and gfwc.org. We hope to see you there.

McClellen High School Wins Football Tournament

McClellen High School Eagles flag football team won their league tournament on October 13. Four AAL (Alternative Athletic League) teams competed at Mahany Field in Roseville, and McClellen won all of their games. Player on the McClellen team included C.J. Arndt, Zack Brocker, Joe Chavarria, Cristian Chavez, Josh Darling, Maxim Davydov, Shon Davis, Steven Dixon, Dominic Garcia, Brenden Glover, Ivan Negrete, Austin Schilling, Tristan Wallenmeyer, and Joel Zavala. MHS teachers Chris Collins and Aaron Higman coached.

The Alternative Athletic League, composed of teams from McClellen, Pacific, Chana, and Phoenix high schools, gives male and female students in continuation schools an opportunity to participate in team sports and helps build student engagement. McClellen teacher Chris Collins began the AAL in 2015, starting with basketball teams. With the football season finished, the next AAL sport will be volleyball, with a tournament planned for December.

Several parents and Center staff members came to watch the football tournament, and all of the players, both male and female, had fun and demonstrated excellent sportsmanship on and off the field. Referes also praised the students, saying it was a great experience.
